Baccalaureate

The Warrensburg Youth Ministry Coalition has been given the task of planning the Warrensburg High School Baccalaureate service on May 12 at 6:00 p.m.

We have secured an awesome speaker and musician for this evening. The speaker is Tony Meléndez; Meléndez began playing and singing in the Los Angeles area in 1985. As of 2005, his band, Tony Meléndez and the Toe Jam Band, has a busy concert schedule. Meléndez gives motivational talks and has written a book. Meléndez now resides in Branson, Missouri with his wife, Lynn. Tony is well known around the world for his inspirational abilities.

The cost of the show is $1500 and the Ministerial Association has approved and has offered to contribute $300 out of their funds for this event. We are asking you for your help. We would like for our church to contribute $150 toward this event. If you are able to help, please write your check to First Christian Church and in the memo line write “Baccalaureate.”
